In case you are unfamiliar with sourdough bread, we advise getting more details on our website or conduct a search before you order. If you're already familiar with sourdough bread, you might be one of our existing customers.

When you make a purchase, please take the following into consideration:

- No preservatives: This means that if you don't consume the bread within 72 hours of purchase, it should be stored in the freezer or fridge.
- It has a tangy flavor: We don't add any sugar, so the taste of the bread is bitter rather than sweet.
- No bread improver: Our bread is naturally fermented, resulting in natural bubbles. These bubbles may not be evenly distributed.
